Violet Sarosi

Violet Sarosi was born on December 20, 1925 in Cleveland Ohio to parents Helen and Julius. Her parents had four kids, Violet (the oldest), Charles, Elizabeth, and Frank, they were raised on Buckeye Road in Cleveland, Ohio. One of Violets fondest childhood memories was going to church with her family. She was an actor in church plays and very much enjoyed it. Violet graduated from John Adams High School in 1944, she decided not to attend college. After high school, she helped out her dad at the grocery store, and also became a secretary at St. Luke's Hospital.

Violet met Ernest in church, although they did attend the same junior high. While Violet and Ernest were in junior high, she would often hide in the girl's bathroom when she would see Ernest in the hallway so she could get a peek at him. Violet and Ernest dated for 3 years before finally tying the knot on June 14th, 1947. Some of her favorite memories with Ernest was the snowstorm on Thanksgiving 1950, which lasted 5 days! This year will be their 76th wedding anniversary! Ernest, Violets husband, worked at the Terex Co. Factory and owned a funeral home with his brother in law.

Violet and Ernest bought a home in Cleveland, where they had 3 children, Caroline, Kathleen and Richard. Some of Violets favorite memories of her children are the birth of her children, watching them grow up, their baptisms, school activities and watching her children get married. The Sarosi's had a few different type of pets. A tea cup toy poodle, tropical fish and birds!

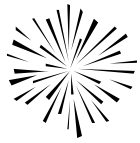

Violet had many hobbies including baking, cooking, sewing and bingo! Violet is such a great baker, she was even commissioned to make wedding and birthday cakes. She also belonged to a variety of clubs and organizations that kept her busy. The Hungarian Charity Club, Solon Senior Citizens Club, Orange Senior Citizens Club and her church. At church she was in the choir, made noodles and helped out with cooking. She enjoys watching her daily soap opera, General Hospital and Hallmark movies.

Violet also loved to travel, taking bus trips to casinos and church clubs after retirement. She has gone many places including, Las Vegas, Iceland, New Orleans, Saint Louis, Washington DC, Toronto, Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati- Richard went to college there, New York, Atlantic City, and Minnesota.

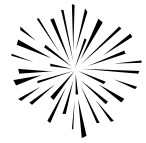

An important piece of advice from Violet is; "Treat others the way you would want to be treated". She always tries to teach this to the younger generation as it is very important to be kind in life.
