Theresa Videmsek

Theresa was born in Cleveland on Oct. 13, 1937 to John and Marie Enders. She had two older brothers, John and James. Her father was a mechanic and owned the Royal Service Garage. Her mother worked for the telephone company until she started having children. She then, traded in her paycheck to become a stay-at-home mom. Theresa grew up in Cleveland and attended public school until the 8th grade. She then transferred to St. Cecelia's. She was only there for one year, because her family moved to Solon. Once in Solon she was back in public school and graduated from Solon High School. Theresa was a good student and enjoyed playing basketball and softball. In addition to sports, Theresa also enjoyed the doll collection she and her mother had.

Theresa's mom taught her how to sew, crochet and do all sorts of crafts, something they enjoyed working on together. Theresa studied at Kent State University for two years, learning a variety of secretarial skills. After leaving Kent State she got a job with Western Electric in Cleveland. She worked as a secretary, getting many promotions along the way. After working there for nine years she got a job at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, also as a secretary. A job she enjoyed for 25 years.

During a church youth gathering Theresa's brother introduced her to Joe Videmsek, the love of her life. Their first date was to see the movie, "The Shaggy Dog". They dated for five years. On October 19th 1965 Theresa and Joe married at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Aurora. They were married for 58 years.

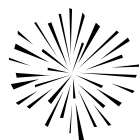

Theresa & her husband Joe meeting Oprah!

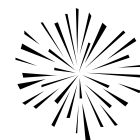

During a church youth gathering Theresa's brother introduced her to Joe Videmsek, the love of her life. Their first date was to see the movie, "The Shaggy Dog". They dated for five years. On October 19th 1965 Theresa and Joe married at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Aurora. They were married for 58 years. Sadly, Joe passed away four years ago. Theresa and Joe never had children of their own, but have wonderful nieces and an amazing nephew that take excellent care of her and make sure she has everything she needs.

Joe's hobby was entering sweepstakes. They loved traveling and he won many trips including one to Paris, France on the Concord! He also won a trip to meet Oprah Winfrey and even won a car. We asked Theresa if she had ever met anyone else who was famous. She replied my husband. When asked further what he was famous for, she replied, "To me he was everything!" Theresa and Joe loved to travel. They took numerous bus trips to play Bingo, go to casinos and just sight-see. Theresa's favorite foods are corned beef and Russo's Sausage pizza.

Theresa moved to Anna Maria Assisted Living in 2022. She enjoys Bingo, all different types of church services and musical activities. At first Theresa seems quiet, but when you get to know her she has a wonderful sense of humor and a beautiful smile.
